

MEMBERSHIPS IN ORGANIZATIONS FOR 2023-24

No.	Organizations	User
1.	Association of California School Administrators (ACSA)	Board of Education	$1,000
	Description: ACSA alerts, up-to-the-minute email notifications on state and federal budget issues that impact K-12 funding. They also receive subscription to EdCal, CareerConnect, and Leadership, ACSA's award-winning professional magazine. Members receive reduced registration fees at ACSA workshops, conferences, and academies. It also includes access to a thriving community of school leaders and a vast network of resources to help school board members better navigate the hot topics affecting California education.
2.	California Latino School Boards Association (CLSBA)	Board of Education	$500
	Description: CLSBA is an organization providing support to school board members and trustees to move forward education policy to increase P-12 student achievement.
3.	California School Boards Association (CSBA)	Board of Education	$47,000
	Description: This association is for school board members in California. CSBA provides support and political advocacy for School Board members. The Education Alliance, a subset of CSBA, provides legal service and advice to school board and districts. Superintendent and Board members will receive subscriptions to California School News, California School Magazine, and access to GAMUT. GAMUT is an online policy information service providing school districts resources when updating Board Policies and Administrative Regulations.
4.	CEO Leadership Alliance Orange County	Board of Education	$500
	Description: CEO Leadership Alliance Orange County brings together people to work on the big issues that require cross sector collaboration.
5.	Elks Lodge Santa Ana	Board of Education	$186
	Description: Serving the people and communities through programs while focusing on building a sense of community; including student scholarships, community service, educational opportunity.
6.	National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials (NALEO)	Board of Education	$600
	Description: NALEO is the nation's leading nonprofit organization that facilitates participation of Latinos in the American political process, from citizenship to public service. The NALEO Educational Fund is a nonpartisan 501 (c)(3) organization. NALEO provides professional development opportunities and technical assistance to the nation's more than 6,000 Latino elected and appointed officials, and monitor and conduct advocacy on issues important to the Latino community and our political participation.
7.	Orange County School Board Association (OCSBA)	Board of Education	$500
	Description: The OCSBA promotes cooperation between Districts. It provides an exchange of information on school issues and holds conferences/workshops/seminars for its membership.
8.	Association of School Business Officials International (ASBO)	Business Services	$500
	Description: ASBO International is a collaborative association dedicated to support school business professionals and provides program services with an active global network and a growing knowledge center of tools, and resources to promote the highest standards of school business management, professional growth, and the effective use of educational resources.
9.	California Association of School Business Officials (CASBO)	Business Services	$6,500
	Description: The California Association of School Business Officials is the premier resource for professional development and business best practices for California's school business leaders. CASBO is dedicated to promoting excellence and professionalism in all aspects of school business and stay current on school news; get understandable downloads on legislation and public school advocacy efforts; and connect with industry colleagues who are informed, experienced feet on the ground in California's public schools. CASBO members represent every facet of school business management and operations.

No.	Organizations	User
10.	Council of Great City Schools	Business Services	$47,000
Description: Membership in this organization exclusively represents the needs of urban public schools and will allow the District to join representatives from 66 other big-city districts who share a wealth of information, combine political influence, and collaborate on issues and challenges facing inner-city schools. Membership includes access to KPI Performance Management System which provides powerful metrics for analysis of District practices and operations compared to the 66-member districts with similar challenges and demographics.
11.	National Notary Association	Business Services/District Office	2 x $1,200 = $2,400 every 4 years
Description: Association has unlimited hotline support via the telephone with expert notaries giving advice and answering any question notaries may have. NNA provides professional training programs and online services. Kathleen Gil – Commission Expires: 2/27, Cecilia Luna – Commission Expires: 5/25
12.	School Services of California (SSC)	Business Services	$6,000
Description: The District receives ongoing information and advice in all facets of school operation. Primary emphasis is related to legislation and school business functions as they relate to programmatic issues, and collective bargaining.
13.	California School Public Relations Association (CalSPRA)	Communication Office	$350
Description: Provides advice, training, support, and information for school public information office at State and local level. Through a shared network, districts are able to get best practices and templates for immediate use.
14.	National School Public Relations Association (NSPRA)	Communication Office	$350
Description: NSPRA is the leader in school communication, providing members with the resources, products, services, and counsel needed to excel in their roles as lead communicators. This organization provides access to collaborate with school communication professionals throughout the country bringing best practices to the District. Templates and sample communication and marketing plans are accessible to members to utilize for their individual districts.
15.	Every Child California	Early Childhood Education	$1,500
Description: For over 75 years, our organization has been providing and developing leadership and education opportunities that support publicly funded early care and education programs for children from birth to 13 and their families. Our name, Every Child California, represents our comprehensive approach to early childhood education and learning. Every Child California advocates for publicly funded early care and education programs across the state, by supporting the development of the child's social, emotional and intellectual well being, all while in a safe and high quality learning environment.
16.	National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC)	Early Childhood Education	$1,050
Description: The National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) is a professional membership organization that works to promote high-quality early learning for all young children, birth through age 8, by connecting early childhood practice, policy, and research. We advance a diverse, dynamic early childhood profession and support all who care for, educate, and work on behalf of young children. The association comprises nearly 60,000 individual members of the early childhood community and more than 50 Affiliates, all committed to delivering on the promise of high-quality early learning. Together, we work to achieve a collective vision: that all young children thrive and learn in a society dedicated to ensuring they reach their full potential.
17.	California Association for Bilingual Education (CABE)	Educational Services	$500
Description: A non-profit organization incorporated in 1976 to promote bilingual education and quality educational experiences for all students in California. CABE has 5,000 members with over 60 chapters/affiliates, all working to promote equity and student achievement for students with diverse cultural, racial, and linguistic backgrounds.

No.	Organizations	User
18.	International Society for Technology in Education	Educational Services	$600
Description: The International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE®) is the premier nonprofit organization serving educators and education leaders committed to empowering connected learners in a connected world. ISTE serves more than 100,000 education stakeholders throughout the world. The membership dues offset costs relating to 16 staff members and provides discounts for the annual technology conference.
19.	National Network of Partnership Schools	Educational Services	$400
Description: NNPS invites schools, districts, states, and organizations to join together and use research-based approaches to organize and sustain excellent programs of family and community involvement that will increase student success in school.
20.	American Mock Trial Association	Educational Services/Career Technical Education	$1,000
Description: Through engaging in trial simulations in competition with teams from other institutions, students develop critical thinking and public speaking skills, as well as a knowledge of legal practices and procedures.
21.	California Association of SkillsUSA, Inc.	Educational Services/Career Technical Education	$3,000
Description: SkillsUSA is a partnership of students, teachers and industryworking together to ensure America has a skilled workforce. SkillsUSA helps each student excel. They provide educational programs, events, and competitions that support career and technical education (CTE) in the nation's classroom.
22.	Future Business Leaders of American (FBLA)	Educational Services/Career Technical Education/Valley H.S.	$600
Description: Program activities include academic training, career and business education training, academic competition, and academic field trips. The club allows business technology students to visit worksites, compete with fellow FBLA students from other schools, and develop team building skills while teacher the importance of setting and achieving goals.
23.	Future Health Professionals (HOSA)	Educational Services/Career Technical Education	$1,000
Description: HOSA is a national career and technical student organization endorsed by the U.S. Department of Education and the Health Science Technology Education Division of ACTE. This is the largest student organization which prepares students to enter the healthcare field.
24.	National Automotive Technicians Education Foundation (NATEF)	Educational Services/Career Technical Education	$1,800
Description: National Automotive Technicians Education Foundation (NATEF) is a non-profit foundation. The primary mission of NATEF is to improve the quality of automotive technician training programs nationwide through voluntary accreditation. NATEF is responsible for the program evaluation process, and approves programs for NATEF accreditation based on the results of the on-site evaluation. The State Departments of Education in all 50 states support NATEF accreditation of automotive programs.
25.	Orange County Business Council (OCBC)	Educational Services/Career Technical Education	$5,000
Description: Orange County Business Council (OCBC) is the leading voice of business on important issues locally, regionally and nationally. The organization works to enhance Orange County's economic development and prosperity to preserve a high quality of life. For more than 100 years, OCBC and its predecessor organizations have promoted economic development countywide and served as the voice of business in America's sixth largest county. Orange County is one of the most desirable places in the nation to live, work, raise families and enjoy an excellent quality of life. Orange County Business Council serves pro business interests so that the region's vibrant economy will continue to expand, bringing the benefits of prosperity to every corner of the county.

No.	Organizations	User
26.	California Association of Supervisors of Child Welfare and Attendance (CASCWA)	Educational Services/Support Services/All Sites	$150
	Description: CASCWA is a leading professional association dedicated to improving school safety and increasing student attendance in our schools within California. Membership is per person.
27.	California Continuation Education Association Plus (CCEA Plus)	Educational Services/Ed Option Sites	$2,000
	Description: CCEA Plus was formed in 1962 to advocate for the interests of continuation school students and staff. CCEA's member-driven organization now serves as the professional community and advocacy group for both continuation and community day schools. Membership is per person.
28.	National Association for College Admission Counseling (NACAC)	Educational Services/College & Career Readiness/All Sites	$1,500
	Description: NACAC is an organization of more than 25,000 professionals from around the world dedicated to serving students as they make choices about pursuing postsecondary education. NACAC represents a broad collection of enrollment management, admission, and counseling professionals who together support students seeking higher education.
29.	California Association of Directors of Activities (CADA)	Educational Services/High School Activities Directors	$250 per site
	Description: CADA provides the introduction and support to develop an effective Student Council with activities and leadership training. It also provides the opportunity to learn how to run an effective Student Council, create team building, obtain information on legal and legislative issues, and promote student leadership.
30.	California Interscholastic Federation (CIF)	Educational Services/High School Athletics	$75 - $105 per Sport
	Description: This is a requirement for all high schools in the State of California in order to be eligible to participate in any athletic contest.
31.	Golden West League	Educational Services/High School Athletics	$2,500
	Description: League dues required for high schools to participate in sports programs. (Santa Ana and Segerstrom).
32.	Orange Coast League	Educational Services/High School Athletics	$2,500
	Description: League dues are required for high schools to participate in sports. (Godinez and Saddleback).
33.	Orange League	Educational Services/High School Athletics	$1,750
	Description: League dues are required for high schools to participate in sports. (Century and Valley).
34.	California State Athletic Directors Association (CSADA)	Educational Services/All High Schools	$100
	Description: CSADA promotes the profession of Athletic Directors through fostering a higher standard of professional proficiency, establishing closer working relationships among state and national groups, providing members with the resources, products, services and counsel needed to excel in their roles as lead communicators.
35.	California League of High School (CLHS)	Educational Services/All High Schools	$2,360
	Description: This organization provides resources and staff development opportunities that pertain to grades 9-12 education including reduction in conference fees and opportunity to participate in high school grade activities.

No.	Organizations	User
36.	College Board	Educational Services/All High Schools	$500
	Description: This organization provides services to comprehensive high schools to help teachers deliver AP courses, to provide counselors and administrators help in understanding and administering SAT and PSAT testing, results and potential, and to develop successful Advanced Placement Program that promote equal access and success for all students.
37.	Constitutional Rights Foundation (CRF)	Educational Services/CTE/All High Schools	$350
	Description: Provides the school with access to participate in the Mock Trial Competition and Law Day activities.
38.	Orange County Academic Decathlon	Educational Services/All High Schools	$500
	Description: Allows the school to participate in the highest level of academic competition through teams of students. Students compete with other students in the county and gain considerable growth in their own academic knowledge and discipline.
39.	Western Association of Schools & Colleges (WASC)	Educational Services/All High Schools	$17,000
	Description: Annual membership fees are required to participate in the accreditation process for all high schools.
40.	National PTA	Educational Services/All School Sites	$25
	Description: Organizational membership.
41.	California League of Middle Schools (CLMS)	Educational Services/Intermediate Schools	$2,655
	Description: This organization provides resources and staff development opportunities that pertain to middle grade education reduction in conference fees and the opportunity to participate in a variety of middle grade activities.
42.	National Association of Rocketry (NAR)	Educational Services/Mendez Fundamental Intermediate School	$100
	Description: NAR is a non-profit tax-exempt scientific organization dedicated to consumer safety, youth education, and the advancement of technology in the hobby of space modeling (sport rocketry) in the United States.
43.	International Thespian Society (ITS)	Educational Services/Middle College High School	$700
	Description: ITS is the only theatre-honor society for middle and high school students in the country. Affiliation brings credibility and distinction to students, theatre programs, and schools. ITS recognizes, rewards, and encourages student achievement and celebrates the work of students in all aspects of theatre performance and production. Students are honored at a national level and gain access to opportunities and resources beyond those of their school.
44.	Middle College National Consortium	Educational Services/Middle College High School	$500
	Description: Professional development organization for secondary and postsecondary public-sector educators. The Consortium provides ongoing technical assistance and support to both new and established middle college high schools as they implement educational reforms and engage in professional activities designed to help underperforming students meet high academic standards. Member schools participate in a Critical Friends Review every five years, students meet annually to discuss significant issues that affect their lives and communities, and educators meet twice yearly for professional development and assistance.

No.	Organizations	User
45.	Southern California Journalism Education Association (SCJEA)	Educational Services/Middle College High School	$200
Description: SCJEA provides professional community and mentors to support and foster excellence of instruction in educational journalism, including newspapers, yearbooks, mass media, etc. This membership is a space for advisors of varying media to join together to network and brainstorm. Furthermore, this will provide high-quality information and competition for student journalists, will promote improvement of school publications, will develop cooperation between high school and college instructors of journalism, and to coordinate activities with other journalism education groups.
46.	Winter Guard Association of Southern California (WGASC)	Educational Services/Santa Ana High School	$700
Description: WGASC is a non-profit, youth organization, which cultivates personal growth through competitive performance opportunities in an organized forum that promotes self-esteem, education and freedom of creativity.
47.	California Association of International Baccalaureate (CAWS)	Educational Services/Saddleback High School	$400
Description: The mission of CAWS is to serve as an advocate and resource for the education community to promote student success in California's primary, middle, diploma, and career program IB schools. CAWS is the leader in effectively advocating for an IB education, CAWS provides world-class professional development, and fosters a dynamic, inclusive network which promotes innovation and collaboration.
48.	National Honor Society (NHS)	Educational Services/Segertrom High School	$385
Description: NHS is a nationwide organization for high school students in the United States and outlying territories, which consists of many chapters in high schools. Selection is based on four criteria: scholarship, leadership, service and character. NHS is a program of National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP).
49.	National Speech and Debate Association (NSDA)	Educational Services/Speech and Debate	$1,600
Description: A nationwide organization for middle and high school students in the United States. Students who are members have access to national speech and debate tournaments.
50.	Arts Orange County	Educational Services/ Visual & Performing Arts	$300
Description: An organization that publishes Imagination Celebration, a publication that promotes art programs.
51.	Kodaly Association of Southern California (KASC)	Educational Services/ Visual & Performing Arts	$700
Description: KASC membership allows Santa Ana USD Arts educators to collaborate on professional development and student arts opportunities through this national organization. Several elementary music educators have attended conferences, workshops and student arts opportunities that support the district's initiatives for Social Emotional Learning and Multi-Tiered System of Support for students and educators. The Kodaly method of music learning engages students in arts learning and supports the district-wide plan for release time for General Education Elementary teachers.
52.	Orange County Chapter of the American Orff-Schulwerk Association	Educational Services/ Visual & Performing Arts	$700
Description: The American Orff-Schulwerk Association is a professional organization of educators dedicated to the creative music and movement approach developed by Carl Orff and Gunild Keetman. This membership will allow for all teachers and others to attend four workshops. These professional developments are designed to develop the musicianship, creativity, and teaching strategies of the adult learner.

No.	Organizations	User
53.	Very Special Arts (VSA) International Network through the Kennedy Center for the Arts	Educational Services/ Visual & Performing Arts	$250
Description: VSA Membership allows SAUSD Arts and Special Education Department (SPED) educators to collaborate on professional development and student arts inclusion opportunities through this national arts organization affiliated with the Kennedy Center for the Arts. Several arts educators and SPED educators have attended conferences, workshops, and student arts opportunities through Orange County Department of Education that support the National Arts Standards and the district's initiatives for Social Emotional Learning (SEL) and Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) for our SPED students and educators. An SAUSD districtwide membership provides direct access to further opportunities and collaboration with other SPED educators nationally, elevates SAUSD programs, as well as provides discounts to the conferences, workshops, trainings, and webinars offered through the Kennedy Center for the Arts.
54.	American Planning Association (APA)	Facilities	$2,000
Description: American Planning Association (APA) is an organization that is beneficial to the District and an essential association for planners. APA allows members to stay connected to the planning community and offers continuing education to elevate the practice of planning. In addition, to learning how to craft and deliver effective planning messages to staff, administrators, and community members.
55.	Association for Learning Environments	Facilities	$575
Description: National and Local School Planning Organization providing research and assistance in developing 21st Century Schools.
56.	California's Coalition for Adequate School Housing (CASH)	Facilities	$2,000
Description: Coalition of entities for lobbying of State legislation regarding facilities issues.
57.	Kiwanis	Facilities	$400
Description: Service Club focused on assisting Santa Ana Youth with scholarships and financial assistance.
58.	School Energy Coalition	Facilities	$260
Description: This membership provides access to legislative information and educational forums that allow schools seeking to learn more about general fund savings through energy and water efficiency and renewable projects.
59.	Californians for School Facilities	Facilities	$2,500
Description: Coalition of California School Districts and business groups lobbying for federal assistance for school construction.
60.	Cooperative Organization for Development of Employee Selection Procedures (CODESP)	Human Resources	$3,000
Description: CODESP was established to provide assistance in certificated and classified employment selection procedures. Among the products and services CODESP provides are: testing materials; salary surveys; training; seminars; workshops for personnel employees, job-related selection procedures; analysis and implementation of fair employment regulations and guidelines; access to a clearinghouse of information on testing and selection; access to an established item bank. This membership has benefited the Human Resources Department immensely.
61.	American Association of School Administrators (AASA)	Identified District Administrators	$1,500
Description: The School Superintendents Association as per prescribed by Superintendent and Deputies contract of employment.
62.	Association of California School Administrators (ACSA)	Identified District Administrators	$20,000
Description: ACSA is an association that provides essential services and benefits tailored to our needs as a school leader. Services provided are as follows: ACSA Alerts, Advocacy, Leadership Magazine, EdCal, Member Rates, Professional Standards, Low Cost Group, Rates, and discounts.

No.	Organizations	User
63.	California Association of Latino Superintendents & Administrators (CALSA)	Identified District Administrators	$1,500
Description: CALSA is a professional association that advocates for the continued development and placement of Latino educational leaders who are committed to quality public education. CALSA Work's cooperatively with other state and national administrative organizations to promote and advocate for quality public education. CALSA's goal is to initiate research and provides data necessary to develop educational programs, which meet the educational needs of the community served by the membership.
64.	California's Coalition for Adequate School Housing (CASH) Maintenance Network	Maintenance & Operations	$350
Description: C.A.S.H Maintenance Network was formed in 1996 to strengthen maintenance efforts Statewide and to increase public and legislative awareness and funding for school maintenance issues.
65.	School Nutrition Association (SNA)	Nutrition Services	$2,400
Description: The School Nutrition Association (SNA) is the only professional association dedicated solely to the support and well-being of school nutrition professionals in advancing good nutrition for all children.
66.	California Association of State Transportation (CASTO)	Purchasing/Transportation	$500
Description: The California Association of School Transportation Officials, better known as CASTO, was founded in 1968 to promote safe pupil transportation for all California children. We are dedicated to the safety of all children through education and training in every avenue of transportation. CASTO is recognized by State and Federal agencies and other professional organizations as the leader of school transportation safety in California.
67.	The Institute for Public Procurement (NIGP)	Purchasing	$1,000
Description: "NIGP: The Institute for Public Procurement" as the go-to-market identity for the Institute, promoting its leadership role in the support of public procurement and its practitioners.
68.	National Procurement Institute (NPI)	Purchasing	$390
Description: As a member of NPI, you and your organization will benefit from the support of a thoughtful, strategic, and professional organization dedicated to supporting the evolving needs of its membership since 1968, encouraging them to achieve procurement excellence, and providing them with the tools to do so.
69.	California Association of Public Procurement Officials (CAPPO)	Purchasing	$1,100
Description: CAPPO was formed in 1915 as a nonprofit organization dedicated to maintaining the highest standards of professional behavior and ethical conduct in public procurement. As the oldest public procurement association in the United States, CAPPO works to provide tools to buyers in the public sector that will help them develop their professional skills for their benefit and the benefit of their agencies.
70.	Association of Governmental Risk Pools (AGRIP)	Risk Mangement	$650
Description: Member pools, affiliated pools, and private sector organizations (QEI Patrons and Partner Members) join AGRiP to become more effective, collaborative and informed through one-of-a-kind resources like the Cybrary, educational events, exclusive access to data and insights, and unique opportunities for pool-to-pool collaboration.
71.	Public Agency Risk Management Association (PARMA)	Risk Mangement	$600
Description: PARMA is dedicated to the professional development of all California public agency personnel with responsibility for risk management, and to the promotion of risk management as a critical component for public agency fiscal health.
72.	Public Risk Management Association (PRIMA)	Risk Mangement	$385
Description: PRIMA is a resource for education and training, risk resources and networking opportunities for public sector risk managers. PRIMA is the largest risk management association dedicated solely to the practice of risk management in the public sector.

No.	Organizations	User
73.	The Risk Management Society (RIMS)	Risk Mangement	$690
Description: RIMS is a global community committed to advancing the practice of risk management throughout the world. Members receive complete access to valuable content including networking, professional development, certification, and education opportunities.
74.	24 Hour Fitness; Health Club Membership	School Police Services	$5,000
Description: Annual Health Club Membership is for individual SASPOA members, who, complete the California Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) fitness examination each year. Per the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA), those that complete the fitness examination are provided yearly health club memberships per each unit member per year.
75.	Association of Threat Assessment Professionals (ATAP)	School Police Services	$430
Description: Membership is for individuals, who, by the nature of their occupation provide threat assessments or violence risk assessments, conduct and publish scientific research involving threat assessments or violence risk assessments, provide legal services or legal counsel related to: the prosecution of instigators of, or representation of individuals or entities who are the victims of, threats or violence; or provide psychiatric or psychological services in conjunction with threat assessments or violence risk assessments. ATAP membership benefits include leadership opportunities, professional networking, educational resources, and training opportunities.
76.	Disaster Preparedness & Recovery Alliance (DPRA)	Emergency Services Manager/School Police Services	$150
Description: The DPRA meets monthly and is supported by members representing small and large businesses, community organizations, municipal agencies, non-profit organizations, universities and schools. The mission of the DPRA is to establish opportunities to network and share information on emergency planning, training and disaster recovery.
77.	CA Police Chiefs Association (Cal Chiefs)	School Police Services	$348
Description: The purpose of the California Police Chiefs' Association is to promote and advance the science and art of police administration and crime prevention: to develop and disseminate professional administrative practices, and to promote their use in the police profession: to foster police cooperation and the exchange of information and experience throughout the State: to bring about recruitment and training in the police profession of qualified persons: to encourage the adherence of all police officers to high professional standards of conduct in the strict compliance with the Law Enforcement Officer's Code of Ethics.
78.	FBI National Academy Associates, Inc. (FBINAA)	School Police Services	$100
Description: The FBI National Academy Associates, Inc.(FBINAA) is an active and healthy organization with nearly 18,000 members worldwide, who are graduates of the FBI National Academy Program. The purpose of the FBINAA is to provide members with continuing education, training, research, and professional development opportunities in law enforcement disciplines which will promote law enforcement cooperation, services, and standards of professional conduct in all levels of law enforcement.
79.	International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP)	School Police Services	$190 x 2 = $380
Description: The IACP shall advance professional police services; promote enhanced administrative, technical, and operational police practices; foster cooperation and the exchange of information and experience among police leaders and police organizations of recognized professional and technical standing throughout the world.
80.	National Association of School Resource Officers' (NASRO)	School Police Services	$360
Description: The NASRO is the largest school-based police organization in the U.S. with a membership of over 6,000 school police officers. The NASRO provides a vast network of experience and expertise all directed at one goal of providing a safe learning environment for students.

No.	Organizations	User
81.	National Association of School Safety and Law Enforcement Officials (NASSLEO)	School Police Services	$475
Description: The National Association of School Safety and Law Enforcement Officials (NASSLEO) provides unmatched levels of resources to ensure continuous growth for school safety leaders, administrators, and managers. NASSLEO, a non-profit organization, is devoted to a safe learning environment for the K-12 educational systems; provides best practices, networking capabilities and professional development for national and international memberships.
82.	Orange County Training Managers Association (OCTMA)	School Police Services	$200
Description: To professionally and responsibly represent all local law enforcement agencies in matters of training management. This includes a partnership between OCTMA, allied training manager organizations, California Police Officer Standards and Training, Chief's and Sheriff's Organizations, and associations interested in furthering the goals of law enforcement training.
83.	Coalition for Adequate Funding for Special Education	Special Education/SELPA	$2,000
Description: Coalition in supporting the advocacy efforts for increase funding for special education.
84.	Crisis Prevention Institute	Special Education/SELPA	6 x $250 = $1,500
Description: CPI is an international training organization that specializes in the safe management of disruptive and assaultive behavior. CPI's hallmark training is the Non-Violent Crisis Intervention (NCI®). NCI® addresses the required crisis intervention components outlined in the California Code, Education Code - EDC § 56521.1.(a).
85.	Orange County Special Education Alliance (OCSEA)	Special Education/SELPA	$4,000
Description: OC Special Education Alliance was established to meet the need for a countywide system that can focus on special education. This includes providing parent education on topics of interest and leadership opportunities for parents to lobby their state representatives regarding special education, with an emphasis on adequate state and federal funding of special education. The Alliance also offers staff development and training to school employees, with a focus on alternative dispute resolution strategies to improve positive communication with parents. In addition, the Alliance oversees the decisions and rulings rendered by administrative agencies, so that proactive measures can be considered when the outcome has a countywide significance or is precedent setting in its implications for all students.
86.	Special Education Local Plan Area Administrators of California	Special Education/SELPA	$1,660
Description: The Special Education Local Plan Area (SELPA) Administrators is a State-wide organization that addresses issues related to the implementation of Special Education programs in districts across California. SELPA Administrators meet monthly with State Department of Education officials in Sacramento and San Diego to discuss service delivery, new trends, resolve problems and develop legislation to address Special Education concerns. The member dues offset costs related to hosting ten (10) meetings held during the school year and includes professional development.
87.	State of California Department of Consumer Affairs	Special Education/SELPA	$200
Description: With a Continuing Education Provider License through the State of California Department of Consumer Affairs, we have a district Speech and Language Pathologist licensed to provide high quality supervision to new Speech and Language Pathologist, provide and participate in professional development activities, and enable opportunities for continuing education units within the District. (Julia Adams Correll)
88.	ACSA Orange County District Superintendent's Organization Meetings	Superintendent's Office	$2,000
Description: Monthly meetings involving all O.C. Superintendent's and County Superintendent's for the purpose of communication and operational matters.
89.	American Association of School Administrators (AASA)	Superintendent's Office	$500
Description: AASA is the premier association for school system leaders and serves as the national voice for public education and district leadership on Capitol Hill.

No.	Organizations	User
90.	Association of Latino Administrators and Superintendents (ALAS)	Superintendent's Office	$500
Description: ALAS is committed to identifying, recruiting, developing and advancing Latin/o/a/x school administrators in order to improve the educational accomplishments of all students. More than 6,000 ALAS members nationwide participate in a variety of signature programs and annual events, including ALAS Superintendents Leadership Academy as a premiere program to promote equity focused and transformative leadership. Memberships begin July 1 of the current year and end June 30 of the following year.
91.	Digital Promise League of Innovative Schools	Superintendent's Office	$4,500
Description: A coalition of leading superintendents committed to partnering with developers, research institutions and one another to demonstrate, evaluate and scale up innovations that deliver better results for students.
92.	Leadership Associates Superintendent's Leadership Network	Superintendent's Office	$5,000
Description: Leadership Associates Network is an association whose superintendent members will have the opportunity to recharge their thinking and learn from fellow superintendents in a confidential and trusted small group environment. Each member will participate in professionally facilitated peer groups to explore challenging and pertinent issues.
93.	NCEE Superintendents Alliance	Superintendent's Office	$3,000
Description : Participants in the NCEE Alliance have the opportunity to attend large group forums and seminars where they can dialogue with leading experts in education and leadership from across the world, and rich discussions with the full Alliance focused on readings and current research related to the work of the superintendent. They also participate in small network groups throughout the year and in-person retreats twice a year.
94.	Orange County Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (OCHCC)	Superintendent's Office	$2,000
Description: The OC Hispanic Chamber of Commerce is important as it provides the availability of positive business connections within the community for our students.
95.	Orange County District Superintendent's Organization	Superintendent's Office	$350
Description: The Orange County District Superintendents' Organization meets monthly to review Legislative, Orange County Health Care Agency (OCHCA), and Orange County Department of Education (OCDE) updates and have roundtable discussions. In addition, the organization holds OC Special Education Alliance Executive Committee monthly meetings.
96.	Price Philanthropies Foundation/Urban Education Dialogue	Superintendent's Office	$2,500
Description: Leading for Equity is a free professional learning community for school and district leaders who face many challenges leading schools and driving school improvement for all students, especially now with COVID-19. Collaboration with peers is one of the most effective ways to learn about effective ideas and practices. This community will provide school leaders with insights and best practices on K12 equity issues and strategies to address systemic inequities in order to benefit all students.
97.	Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce	Superintendent's Office	$3,000
Description: Provides the District with an ever-increasing number of partnership opportunities. The District does not participate in the SAC-PAC.
98.	Southern California Superintendents	Superintendent's Office	$250
Description: Southern California Association members have the opportunity to network with other Superintendents in the southern portion of the state. They meet quarterly to share experiences, concerns, and to keep current on educational issues in the state and nation. In addition, Superintendent's also have the opportunity to meet with Northern Superintendents Association to expand their knowledge and expertise base.			